CLOSURES, CANCELLATIONS, ALERTS AND RESTRICTIONS
Updated April 6, 2020

National Parks, Monuments, Forests and Public Lands:

Yellowstone National Park, Grand Teton National Park, Devils Tower National Monument and Fort Laramie National Historic Site are closed to all visitors until further notice. There will be no visitor access permitted to these areas. Find more information here.

Recreational facilities, buildings and offices in many of Wyoming’s national forests are closed to the public until further notice. The national forests themselves remain open. Find more information here.

Wyoming State Parks and Historic Sites:

The Wyoming State Museum, Wyoming State Archives and Wyoming State Historic Sites are closed to the general public until further notice.

All Wyoming State Park: overnight camping facilities, cabins, yurts, group sites/shelters, showerhouses, some non-essential restrooms, and playgrounds are closed until further notice.

All parks currently remain open for day-use outdoor recreation activities including: trailheads, hiking/biking trails, boat ramps, fishing access, essential restrooms, individual picnic areas/tables. Normal park fees apply; visitors are urged to use fee canisters. Find more information here.

State-wide Closures:

Places of public gathering, including restaurants, bars, coffeehouses, breweries, distilleries, theaters, music halls and concert halls are closed through April 30. Many of these facilities offer delivery or takeout options. Find more information here.

Any individual coming to Wyoming from another state or country for a non-work-related purpose must immediately self-quarantine for 14 days. For visits fewer than 14 days, individuals must self-quarantine for the duration of the visit.

Many Wyoming welcome centers are closed until further notice.

Additional Closures:

Yellowstone National Park Lodging is suspending operations through May 21, 2020. Find more information here.

Grand Teton Lodge Company is delaying its summer season opening dates for Flagg Ranch Cabins, Jackson Lake Lodge, Colter Bay Village Cabins & RV Park and Jenny Lake Lodge. Find more information here.